CHICAGOLAND
Rocky Horror Area Performers
2006 convention

Hi
Welcome to the Garden of Midnight Madness.

I do hope that you all have a VERY happy Convention which, as I'm sure you know is an LON in a convent.

Be joyous - Be kind - have fun and I send you lots of love.

GUEST OF HONOR YASMIN PETTIGREW

yasmin Pettigrew, actress, costumer and longtime friend of Richard O'Brien has travelled from London to share her reminiscences and update us on current goings-on in the world of The Rocky Horror Show.

Yasmin has been involved with the world of Rocky Horror from its earliest days. There will be a Saturday question-and-answer session with her, and she will also be sharing previously unseen Rocky Horror photos, new and old, as well as some other surprises.

Yasmin will be assisting with the auction to benefit the 5 Stars Appeal of the Wallness Children's Charity. We're sure everyone will also enjoy mingling with her during the four days of the convention. She will also be playing the Wardrobe Mistress during the shadowcast performance of Shock Treatment!

THE 5 STARS APPEAL

max Beesley, Chris Bisson, Ryan Giggs, Richard O'Brien and Samia Smith are lending their support as the Five Star Appeal Ambassadors, to help raise £1 Million to provide a much needed MRI scanner for The New Children's Hospital, Manchester. The scanner will help children from Carlisle to Crewe, and, in special cases, anywhere in the UK.

The new equipment will cut the time of a standard scan from 45 minutes to 15 minutes, making it far less distressing for the children. We will also be able to diagnose cancer and cancer related illnesses more quickly, enabling doctors to provide early treatment that will ultimately save children's lives.

The Five Stars Scanner Appeal, through its pledge to raise £1million for a new MRI scanner, will make a major contribution to the quality of treatment for young patients. In working together, we will shape the future.

*As our way to thank and honor Richard O'Brien for the years of pleasure we've enjoyed through Rocky Horror, we will be auctioning items — including two donations from Richard himself — and periodically soliciting donations to benefit Richard's charity of choice.
Please be generous in contributing toward the purchase of the hospital's new scanner!*

UNCONVENTIONAL CONVENTION

W E L C O M E

I hope you enjoy the Jello

Last year Marty from Midnight Insanity wrote in the Vegas con program that trying to plan his convention was like trying to nail Jello to a wall. I'm actually going to expand on that thought. Planning a con IS like trying to nail Jello to a wall... actually, Jello shots... that you have to get out of the cup in one piece first... on New Year's Eve... while you're drunk... and it's 97degrees in your place and the Jello is melting on you... and there's 14 other people trying to nail it to the wall at the same time as well... and 11 other people all have a different opinion about how it should be nailed to the wall... and the two or three people you know have successfully done it aren't there and are near impossible to contact for advice... and people at the party are complaining about everything from the flavor of the Jello to the hole in the wall to the hammering noise or brand of vodka you planned to use... and the people that bring the Jello, the vodka, the water, the bowls, and boil the water and put it in the fridge are all 2 or 3 hours late to the party... and the expenses for the Jello and vodka and water and power are about 4 times what you planned on... and when the hat is passed around to pay for the Jello you get it back with a dollar and a half in it... and when you look around to show everyone that you've succeeded in some form of actually nailing that Jello to the wall, you find half of them aren't even around...

But damn, there's a lot of drunken fun people still around singing and dancing at the party and the Jello shots are going to be goooooood, aren't they?

To all of you that have run successful cons in the past, my hat is off to you. You never know what it's like until you do it, and now I know — and while I've never been particularly critical of too many things at cons in the past, I'll likely think twice about the few things in the future I may want to complain about.

And to those people from Midnight Madness, Pink Invaders, Completely Crazy, and all of you that worked so hard to help make this thing happen, my thanks to all of you too. This thing is all of you, so sit back and enjoy it.

Instead of ever attempting to nail Jello to a wall again, I've decided to just herd cats for pre shows and train monkeys to perform Rocky Horror and sell tickets to that. Gawd knows that will at least be easier. :-)

All Rocky Horror Costume Contest participants will be pre registered on site Friday night and Saturday before the pre shows.

Physical “Denver Style” Awards and cast member made awards, as well as certificates, will be issued to the winners.

Rocky and Shock Treatment Costume Contests/Challenges

ENTERING THE COSTUME CONTEST:

When checking in at the registration desk, all Rocky Horror costume contest contestants will fill out a form with their names, cast affiliations, and which categories they plan to enter. If you are not sure if you want to enter, it is better to go ahead and get a number and not use it than to wait until right before the costume contest and then try to enter. Each contestant will be given a numbered card to present to the judges during the contest. No contestant's name or cast affiliation will be announced until the winners are named. Winners will be announced before the showing of The Rocky Horror Picture Show on Saturday night.

Rocky Horror Costume Contest/Challenge

RULES AND GENERAL INFORMATION

- In addition to our traditional costume contest, we will be having a costume challenge! After presenting their costumes for each category, contestants will be required to perform a physical activity pertaining to their character. The challenges will NOT be announced in advance of the costume contest.
- No additional people will be allowed onstage with you to help you show off your costume or characterization. This means no Eddie throwing Columbia in the air, no Riff and Magenta elbow sex, no Columbia and Magenta unwrapping Rocky, etc. - additionally, we highly discourage personal “showboating”, it's a costume contest, not a performance contest.
- All contestants for each category will present themselves and their costumes to the judges one at a time. For the purposes of photography and so the judges can see all the costumes per category together for comparison, each contestant per category will remain onstage until the judges have finished recording ALL the scores for that category.
- Judges may ask you to show any detail they would like to see more clearly (bra, slip, underwear, etc) but will not be able to touch you or your costume.
- There will be ONE winner per category. You may enter more than one category if you can change your costume quickly. If you choose to enter more than one category, you will present the same numbered card for all of them.
- No member of Midnight Madness or any non-paying convention attendee will be allowed to enter any Un-Toucha-Touchables Convention costume contest. Judges will not be allowed to enter in the contest they are judging (but a Rocky costume judge may enter the Shock Treatment costume contest and vice versa, as long as he or she is a contestant only).
- Small hand props (bouquet, feather duster, space gun, etc.) are encouraged and are included in the scoring under “completeness.”

- No fake blood (other than the small amount on Eddie's forehead), glitter, confetti, silly string, foods or liquids, or any other messy or potentially hazardous items may be used during the costume contest.

CATEGORIES (WILL BE JUDGED IN THIS ORDER)

SCREEN ACCURATE:

1. Rocky
2. Janet
3. Brad
4. Columbia
5. Magenta
6. Riff
7. Frank (including floorshow)
8. Criminologist
9. Dr. Scott
10. Eddie
11. Transylvanian
12. Floorshow (Columbia, Rocky, Janet, Brad)
13. Spacesuits (Magenta, Riff)

JUDGES AND SCORING

There will be between 3-5 judges. Judges will not be announced until the costume contest begins. For everything except the Creative categories, judges will rate the following criteria on a scale of 1-10 using individual scorecards for each category:

1. Completeness, including props
2. Colors, materials and design/pattern
3. Fit and construction (visible construction, whatever you use underneath doesn't matter, it's the result on the exterior)
4. Hair and makeup, including tattoos and scars if applicable (we will not hold real tattoo's against anyone, we're just looking for Rocky ones)
5. Overall accuracy

Judges will not be able to confer. After the costume contest is over, all scores will be tallied by an impartial party. The contestant with the highest score per category will be named the winner of that category.

CREATIVE

(NOTE: The "Trixie" category will be judged by the judges AND the whole audience by ballot; "Creative Rocky-related" and "Creative General" will be judged ONLY by the audience by ballot.)

1. Trixie

2. Creative Rocky-related (any non Sue Blane influenced costume that is a specific Rocky Horror character)

3. Creative General (non-Rocky)

CREATIVE CATEGORY SCORING

Now is the time to let your creativity shine! Since there is no standard for screen accuracy in a creative costume, we have decided to let the audience pick the winners by ballot for Creative Rocky-related and Creative General categories. The Trixie category will be judged by the whole audience in addition to the judges. Audience members will use their ballots to record the number of the contestant for whom they choose to vote for each of these three categories. All votes will be tallied by an impartial party. The creative contestant with the most votes per category will be named the winner of that category.

Rocky costume contest winners will be announced Saturday night before the start of Rocky Horror at The Music Box.

Shock Treatment Costume Contest

RULES AND GENERAL INFORMATION

- All general rules for the Rocky Horror costume contest apply to the Shock Treatment costumes contest (no messy liquids, Midnight Madness members not allowed to enter, etc).
- The Shock Treatment costume contest will have a Best Male Character winner and a Best Female Character winner (it doesn't matter if you are a different gender than your character). In the event of a lack of participants, there will only be a single overall best Shock Treatment costume award.
- All contestants, regardless of which character's costume they are wearing, will be judged together as ONE category.

JUDGES AND SCORING

There will be between 3-5 judges. Judges will not be announced until the costume contest begins. Judges will take into consideration each contestant and then write down their votes for Best Male and Best Female Character and will be able to confer. Shocky costume winners will be announced immediately at the end of the contest.

The Chicago Style Costume Contest Audience Voting

in addition to judged costume contest awards, we are also giving out three awards voted on by the convention audience, Best Creative Rocky Horror Costume, Best Trixie, and Best Overall/Creative Costume. In your registration pack you will receive one ballot for you to vote for one person in each category.

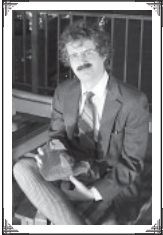

However, such is the tradition in Chicago elections, the phrase "vote early, vote often" may come into play here, we fear. Some several hundred extra ballots that were printed for the audience choice costume contest awards have turned up missing! Now, we're not saying anything or accusing anyone of anything or any wrongdoing, but Chicago elections can sometimes turn up some accusations of fixed voting, ballot stuffing, voting by dead people, for noncandidates, or by people that live at nonexistent addresses with forged IDs.

Now we're putting our faith in you guys to keep this as honest and fair as the good people of the City of Chicago — if any Convention representative or Costume Contest candidate offers YOU the chance to "get a few extra votes" or a chance to toss a couple extra ballots in the box for a favor or three, we hope that none of you take them up on it. We're all about the fair elections here, and we know you are too!

Brought to you by...

While some believe that his merry manner may be traced to an upbringing amongst multitudinous moose, he stepped into the role of Dr. Scott in Chicago more like a stealthy black panther. The antlered understudy had this to say: "He's not bad."

Though he is occasionally Brad, shockingly, also a lecherous professor. He can some find sometimes be found at a bar near the theater playing scategories or fiddling with his Homer's rubik's cube.

He's an enthusiast of b-movies, mummies, sci fi and all things Chicago. Likes the Cubs, doesn't like the White Sox, enjoys a good Old Style on his back porch and seeing punk rock shows in basements. gotten decent at props, she will be moving on to "Trixie" and "Columbia" sometime this fall (hopefully). She is a student, and therefore routinely dyes her hair strange colors, wears too much makeup, and reads too many science fiction, fantasy, and erotica books. Kennedy manifests her artistry by making her own clothes (usually out of duct tape), as well as jewelry, and practices using henna to do not-very traditional tattoo designs on herself and friends. She is incredibly ADD and

Costume Contest and Casting Committee,
Special Amenities Coordinator

Rebecca first saw RHPS on video after hearing "Time Warp" at a Bat Mitzvah (really!). That video showed fan convention footage and she thought, "Those freaks! I'll never be like that." Famous last words!

Rebecca's been involved in Rocky since 1999 and a Midnight Madness member since 2002. She's enjoyed playing Janet Weiss, Janet Majors (Shock Treatment) and Miss Scarlet (Clue). Rebecca is devoted to screen-accurate costuming and has won over five Janet costume contests. Her Rocky costume experience has helped her become a sewing instructor. And no, Jenny and Rebecca aren't sisters, but you're not the first to ask.

Sarah

Primary Con Committee Member
CRHAP Affiliation: Midnight Madness
Staging Manager, Financials, Special
Amenities, Special Guest Coordinator

Bounced around from cast to cast, finally settled down at last.

Made my home on MM's stage,
as staging manager I sure can rage.
I do Janet, Mags, and sometimes Riff, even Columbia though I hate that bitch.
But Trixie will always have all my heart, deep down inside she's my favorite part.

Heyyy...

What up ya'll!?! Names Jenny but since everyone and their mother has the same name you can call me Shappy. I suppose ya wanna know a lil about me cause well that's why you're reading this thing. Well ok here it goes... I'm a photo major at Columbia College Chicago (huge photo nerd, btw). Went to high school in the burbs, I guess I am just your typical 19 year old. I go to a TON of local shows, hang with my friends, stuff like that. I have a weakness for chocolate, gummi worms & GOOD music. See ya around!

Shawn

Con Committee Member
CRHAP Affiliation: Pink Invaders
Emcee, Friday Rocky Horror Planning, Special
Segments

Herr Direktor of the Pink Invaders, and frequent sprinkler of chest hair on his favorite virgins, Shawn will be seen around and about the convention MC'ing this gig. Give him a couple of shots of tequila and see what happens.

Strawberry

Con Support Staff
CRHAP Affiliation: Midnight Madness
General Security and Crew

Rockstar by night, Real Estate Litigator by day, Strawberry is often too strange for his normal friends, and too normal for his strange friends. When not attempting to take the Chicago music scene by storm, he can be found expounding upon the differences between easements, equitable servitudes, and covenants, or trying to convince people that Zoning Law is interesting. Ultimately, Strawberry wants to be an attorney because if he can't be a rockstar, he wants to help the rest of them out. Music is in his blood, in his heart, on his lips, and on his skin. Ladies, he's single!

Swayze

Yes you will start off a mere boy in a dress, but by the time we are done with this crusade your Auntie Vida and your Auntie Noxee will give you the outrageous outlook and indomitable spirit that it will take to make you a full-fledge Drag Queen.

I want you to be nice until it's time to not be nice.

Nobody puts Baby in a corner.

Will is jeff's biotch — but he shares him with the ladies.

OUR HEARTFELT THANKS

— Thank You to... —

We would be remiss if we didn't acknowledge some individual people and their help and contributions toward making our event happen.

The Congress Plaza Hotel and Music Box Theatre for hosting our event, particularly Tracy Robinson, Brian Andreotti and Chris Welch.

Sarah K., jeff N., George D., Emily A., Elaine T. for their significant personal contributions of financial support, and hours upon hours of time. Jenny D., Rebecca M., Chris S., Dave S., Erin A., and Duhan for their additional contributions of time, talent, and funding. Becky C. for her incredible organizational skills and record keeping and seeing that the registration process was complete and painless for everyone.

Without the above named, this event would NOT have happened.

— Also a big thanks to: —

RICHARD O'BRIEN and the cast of the new UK Rocky Horror Show, for affording us time from your busy schedules to help us and the Wallness Children's Charity.

YASMIN PETTIGREW for being our personal liaison to Richard O'Brien and for attending our little soirée (and not holding it too much against us when we flaked out on some of the miscellaneous details :-).

Larry Viesel for his efforts, advice, and much appreciated words of encouragement throughout the last several months.

Charmaine Owen of the Wallness Children's Charity, for putting us in touch with Richard and Yasmin.

Sal Piro of the US Rocky Horror Fan Club, we're sorry you were not available for our event, you are missed.

Ruth Fink-Winter, Wally Barsell, Larry Viesel and Yasmin for bringing original costume pieces.

Cynthia Miller for her donations for the special costume contest prizes, Rebecca M., Jenny D., Emily A., George D., Chris S., Pants and Mom Elaine for their time and money on the special cast made costume contest prizes, Sarah K. for her work on the glass con awards, and Karly D. for her artistic contributions for the con materials.

John Davey for Shock Treatment on actual film.

The Pink Invaders for stepping up to do the Rocky Horror Kung Fu Night on Friday night.

Platinum Graphics, Park Ridge, IL, for assistance with the printing of our program book.

Shawn Campbell and Craig Kois at WLWU, Chicago Punk Shows Collective, the Southkore Collective, Disrobe and Capitalist Casualties and Chris S. for their help with the convention audio setup, and Shawn S. and Larry V. for their help with the video and lighting setup.

Belmont Burlesque, The Karaoke Dokies, and Luke Ski for donating their professional performance talents to our Vaudeville Show.

The Emcee and hosting talents of Emily Agustin and Shawn Stutler.

Jim "Cosmo" Hetzer for his promotion efforts.

Our respective bosses and places of employ for looking the other way when we had con stuff to get done over the last several months that just couldn't wait until our personal time.

The Convention Committee for GumboCon for not freaking out on us when we announced our con so close to your date (have fun in Louisiana in a couple of weeks!)

Jack Daniel's and Excedrin Extra-Strength.

And all of the performers and attendees of the convention – Rocky Horror IS all of you.

And anyone else we forgot

(we're sorry if we did — our brains are mush after months of living and breathing this thing.)

From Our Boosters

Hello from FullBodyCast in Harvard Square! Sorry we couldn't make it this year but we hope you all have a great time and we see lots of incriminating photos online! Do everything we would do if given the chance. –Alex and the rest of the FBC
www.FullBodyCast.org

Thank you for 14 great years Becky and Marty - the RHPS world will miss you! (and we don't think it's just a coincidence you retired two weeks before this con!)

Thanks! Kate (aka LadyG) for your donation to the Wallness Children's Charity!

Two girls seek third for threesome at Rocky Horror convention. Knock shave and a haircut with your key on our door, if interested.

I want these mother-fucking snakes off my mother-fucking plane!

GumboCon; One con shall rule them all in 2006!

The convention planners kindly request everyone stop randomly knocking shave and a haircut on everyone else's doors — we've had over 400 complaints already.
